

23. Machinery

Never operate any machinery until you have received proper training and you thoroughly understand safety procedures, instructions for adjustments, power interruption, jamming, lubrication, and inspection.

- 23.01. Ensure the guarding systems are in place, functioning properly, and have not been altered or removed.
- 23.02. Operate all machines according to the manufacturers operators manual and follow all safety procedures.
- 23.03. Wear all specified personal protective equipment (PPE).